Re: LG.Philips LCD Co., Ltd. v. ViewSonic Corporation, et al.;
U.S. District Court Case No. 04-343 JJF

Dear Counsel:

Please confirm that the deposition of Sharp Microelectronics is the only third party deposition currently scheduled in response to your subpoenas and that all remaining depositions, other than HP and Stuart Morgan, have been cancelled or postponed. Rather than unilaterally selecting dates for the remaining depositions, please contact as soon as the rescheduling process begins so that we can work with you on selecting a date for each of the remaining depositions.

In addition, Ms. Ho sent an email on Friday, March 23, 2007, indicating that the deposition of Welch Allyn Protocol would be postponed. Apparently, however, Tatung failed to file with the Court the required Notice of Service and copy of the subpoena and/or deposition notice. Accordingly, please provide immediately: i) copies of all documents served on Welch Allyn Protocol; and ii) all documents and things produced or offered for inspection by Welch Allyn Protocol in response to your notices and/or subpoenas.

In order to eliminate any future surprises, please confirm that the table below properly reflects: i) all the third parties on which Defendants have served notices and/or subpoenas; ii) the party serving those notices and/or subpoenas; iii) the total document production by each third party; and iv) whether a product, e.g., computer monitor, television, etc. was produced and/or is available and/or is in your possession for inspection.
